FOURTH SUNDAY
OF LENT
6TH MARCH, 2016

RCIA — next meeting will be on Wednesday at 7.00 pm

Sundays 3, 4, 5 of Lent—Scrutinies for Karen at 11.00 am Mass. Those over 14 take part in three scrutinies before baptism. As Lindsay is already baptised, she does not take part in the scrutinies.

Due to the scrutinies, the readings at the 11.00 am Mass on Sundays 3, 4, 5 of Lent will be those of Cycle A, not those of Cycle C which will be used at the Vigil Mass

Wednesday of 5th Week of Lent—Presentation of Our Father 7.00 pm in the Church

Remember

Pupils in Primary 3 at St Paul's who have registered with the parish are due First Confession on 17th March. The first Confessions will be the Lenten Devotions that week.

Pupils who made their first confession last year are due to make their first Communion this year—date choices are available at choice over the Easter Season.

Lenten Programme:

As will be explained at Mass, the Lenten programme has, of necessity, had to be reduced. The Tuesday evening talks will not take place this Lent. Mgr. Smith regrets this and hopes that the subject may be able to be taken up later in the year. We will hopefully keep Thursday night devotions going.

SCIAF COLLECTION—This Sunday sees the annual SCIAF collection. This is the major collection for our developing world charity and it is well supported. SCIAF asks that you keep this support up this year when, once again, there will be matching aid on what you give, penny for penny, pound for pound. If you give money to SCIAF before 18th May, then the government will match every penny you give. If you can gift-aid your SCIAF donation, there are gift aid envelopes available. Please collect one from the back of the church.

The Gonzaga Lectures this year will focus on the theme of mercy—poster with details on the noticeboard.

Saint John Ogilvie, 10th March, will be marked in the Cathedral with a Mass with the Archbishop at 1.00 pm—All welcome.

There will be a St Patrick's Night Ceilidh held in the hall on Friday 11 March 2016 to raise funds for the Restoration Fund. Tickets are now available from Hall Committee Members.

There will also be a diocesan Mass for St Patrick—see poster on notice board
