RCIA—the RCIA journey is completed by the celebration of Pentecost. Our newly baptised/received who were confirmed and received their first Communion at Easter have continued to journey with us through the Easter Season and now have arrived with us at Pentecost. They mark the end of their formal catechetical formation with attendance at the Vigil Mass of Pentecost here in the parish and then join the Archbishop in the Cathedral on Pentecost Sunday afternoon.

Thanks are due to catechists and sponsors who walked with the candidates through their formation. Now it is time to say again—is there anyone out there thinking of becoming a Catholic or wondering what it involves? —If so, speak to the parish priest.

The Parish Hall - Come and join us for tea and coffee after the 11.00 Mass today — All are welcome
